Trust in the Wait. August 10, 2020; Bookmark Read Later Share Monday 10. Psalm 33:13-22.

Waiting on God stretches our trust in Him, especially when we are urgently longing for His intervention or guidance in a situation. From our earthly perspective and with our limited knowledge, it may seem as if He doesn't care, but that is far from the truth.

Trust in the Wait

Trust in God; trust also in me" (John 14:1). We may know that Jesus loves us and promises always to be with us (Matthew 28:20), but we can't see Him, and, during times of trouble, doubt and fear can creep in and make it difficult to apply that knowledge. Peter encourages us that we can trust in Jesus even when we cannot see Him: "In all ...

What does it mean to trust in Jesus? | GotQuestions.org

When God tells us to wait, we don't trust him, but go ahead and find ways to accomplish what we want to happen. This tendency to push God to the side goes against his plan for us. It creates distance in our relationship with him.
